

In your consideration of rule changes, please do not allow the consolidation of media outlets under larger owners. We need free, open expression. Control of the media by fewer and larger media conglomerates will limit opportunities to express divergent opinions.